

THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Pursuant to the provisions of rule 8.66 of the California Rules of Court it has been determined that because of the uncontrolled wildfires throughout Southern California, including the County of San Diego, there is an immediate threat to the orderly operations of the Court of Appeal, Fourth Appellate District, Division One, which is located in the County of San Diego. Due to the wildfires, Governor Schwarzenegger has declared a state of emergency for San Diego County, among others. Upon the request of Administrative Presiding Justice Judith D. McConnell, it is ordered that the Court of Appeal, Fourth Appellate District, Division One, is authorized to do the following:

- Declare that October 22 and October 23, 2007, be deemed holidays for purposes of computing the time for filing papers with the Court and for purposes of computing time under Title 8 of the California Rules of Court.

This order is to be in effect for proceedings in which the deadline for any action under Title 8 of the California Rules of Court would occur between October 22, 2007 through and including October 23, 2007. The court must notify the Judicial Council if the circumstances necessitating this order are resolved prior to October 23, 2007.

Date: October 22, 2007

Chief Justice of California
