

Please join us on December 7 from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. for a panel discussion hosted by the Pacific Juvenile Defender Center and Munger, Tolles & Olson LLP on juvenile sentencing after SB394. Our panelists Elizabeth Calvin, Heidi Rummel, Sean Kennedy, Joshua Knight, and Richard Braucher will lead a conversation on how to conceptualize juvenile sentencing after SB394 and how to address issues that will likely arise for our clients as we move forward with Miller, 1170(d), and Franklin hearings. Please see below for a full agenda.

The event will be held at Munger, Tolles & Olson's offices in Los Angeles and San Francisco, to be connected via videoconference:

Los Angeles:

350 South Grand Avenue

Los Angeles, CA 90071

San Francisco:

560 Mission Street

San Francisco, CA 94105

Also live streaming available on the web (rsvp below)

The event is free and 2 hours of MCLE credit will be available.

To RSVP: Please send your name, affiliation, and the location you wish to attend (Los Angeles or San Francisco) to sara.taylor@mto.com by Monday, December 4. For questions, please contact Sara Taylor at sara.taylor@mto.com or 213-683-9247.
