June - Corrected News Alert

Dear Panel Members,

Sorry, this is a correction to the alert sent earlier this morning. The MCLE on June 5th will be 12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. It's been corrected below in the MCLE portion at the end of the alert.

I'm sorry for the inconvenience, the rest of the alert is the same.

This month's content includes:

- ADI Associate Attorney Opening
- New Oral Argument Request Letter & Accompanying Order
- MCLE Opportunities
- ADI Website updates

Interested in joining the staff at ADI?

We are hiring a full-time criminal law associate attorney. The associate attorney is a two-year position with a primary focus on direct representation. The position is intended for an attorney in the early stages of appellate practice, roughly one (1) to five (5) years of appellate experience.

New Oral Argument Request Letter

& Accompanying Order

Division Three's oral argument request letter now comes with an order that parties complete and return the request letter within 30 days. In addition, the request form now permits counsel to request remote argument without any showing of cause.

This change was motivated in part to reduce the changes to the oral argument calendar after it's set.

MCLE Opportunities

"Citations Matter: California Style Manual Tips for Effective Appellate Briefing"

June 5, 2026 from 12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. | Zoom

Experienced appellate practitioner Melissa Camacho will share practical tips and reminders for using the California Style Manual effectively in appellate briefing. Learn how proper citation to cases, statutes, and legislative history can strengthen written advocacy in the Court of Appeal and Supreme Court. This program is designed for both newer practitioners and seasoned appellate attorneys seeking a refresher on appellate writing and citation practices.

1 hour of MCLE credit to be provided.
